Discover Significance in Times of Crisis with Erick Rheam

Thursday, November 12
10:30 a.m. - Noon CST

When we experience crisis, we adjust our lives to navigate the crisis, but what happens when we find ourselves in an extended crisis and we become frustrated, tired, unhealthy, and begin to drift through life and numb to our circumstance as we fall deeper into survival mode? Everyone desires to live a life on purpose. The problem is a crisis distracts and frustrates that journey.

This talk sets the stage for the principles that we can apply to help us stay focused and navigate the whirlwind and a chaotic life in a way that keeps us on a path towards significance, so that we not only survive the crisis, but thrive and experience transformation that inspire us to come out on the other side a better version of ourselves.

We will learn the five principles of achieving significance and Erick will give us five action items to apply immediately at work and home. We will discover the seven elements of the perfect day and how to apply the power of priorities to manage the overwhelm of life.
